Jackson, MS-Pun intended, The Caravans really did 'pave the way' for this year's Grammy nomination of their reunion CD, Paved The Way. This recording marks the first for the group in forty years.

Released in September 2006, Paved The Way immediately hit the top ten and has been on the charts ever since (see chart at left).

The group's legendary artists Albertina Walker, Dorothy Norwood, Inez Andrews and Delores Washington, have been touring the nation visiting radio stations and performing; wowing audiences with their fiery vocals and indomitable strength and spirit. The group, founded by Albertina Walker in the 1950s, helped to launch many solo careers and broke many barriers for other artists in the gospel music industry.

CONGRATULATIONS CARAVANS!
FOR MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY OF GREAT GOSPEL MUSIC!!!

CAROLYN TRAYLOR MAKES TELEVISION DEBUT

Jackson, MS-Carolyn Traylor (Malaco Records) recently taped a performance for TV-One's The Gospel of Music with Jeff Majors. 2007 Grammy nominated Gerald Levert is another artist featured on the show that will air in January of 2007.

With Traylor's title track, "There's A Story Behind My Praise" tearing up airways, industry folks are comparing her to the award-winning soul-diva Patti LaBelle and clamoring for more.
