CARAVANS CLIMB BILLBOARD & RADIO CHARTS

Jackson, MS-The Caravans reunion release, Paved The Way, hit the charts running and has been a mainstay since its September, 2006 release. Dorothy Norwood's featured song, "Remember Me," claims the #13 spot on Billboard Charts, #11 on Music Monitor, and is at #5 on the Independent Gospel Singles charts, recognized as the biggest gainer. The Caravans are currently in Nashville, TN to perform during the Stellar Awards celebration January 12-13, 2007.

CAROLYN TRAYLOR ROCKS GOSPEL RADIO

Jackson, TN-Release in May, 2006, There's A Story Behind My Praise has turned into a sleeper hit for Carolyn Traylor (Malaco Records). After performing at GMWA in August, radio announcers couldn't help but to be taken in by Traylor's powerful delivery and delightful personality. She has continued performing live at COGIC churches and other venues, creating a memorable force to be reckoned with in the gospel music arena.

Malaco serviced gospel radio stations with a Carolyn Traylor package, which included a poster with the title track single, the first week of January. Gospel radio stations have been clamoring for more ever since. Phone lines and email boxes are jammed with requests for interviews, autographs and performances by Traylor. At WEWO in Laurinburg, NC, Wesley Johnson couldn't wait to get Traylor on the phone to relate a personal experience he had at the funeral of an uncle where a young girl 'tore the roof off' with her rendition of "There's A Story Behind My Praise." He didn't know the title of the song, but had to have it somehow. Malaco's Carolyn Traylor package showed up on his desk the next week and he called immediately to relate his story and that's just one of them...
