MAURETTE BROWN-CLARK DELIVERS ALL THINGS GOOD ON THE ROAD

Brown-Clark may be small in stature, but she is big in voice and spirit. Her powerful performance at GMA (Nashville, TN) during the New Day showcase brought people to their feet and the spirit took over. With her new release, The Dream, finally on the shelves, fans are finally getting what they've waited for: A healing salve for an aching soul.

Brown-Clark has been busy lately, traveling all over the U.S. to promote The Dream. On April 17, she taped Singsation in Chicago, flew to Malaco Records in Jackson, MS, to regroup, then headed to Baton Rouge, LA, to conduct radio interviews at WXOK & WTQT. She also led the Praise and Worship midweek service at a Baton Rouge mega-church. From there she traveled to New Orleans to do the morning show on WYLD and during breakfast at the world famous Trolley Stop, fans stopped for autographs and purchased her CD.

Mobile, AL, was the next spot on the tour; here she did the afternoon drive on WGOK, then turned back to Jackson, MS to do the morning show on WOAD the next day. She spent that afternoon hosting the Midday Lunch hour request show on Hallelujah FM and then participated in the Benjamin Cone III conference on Saturday night, performing at three services at two different churches the following morning.

She finally headed to Nashville for GMA Week, but stopped first in Memphis to lunch with the Program Director of WLOK, arriving in Nashville to do the morning show on WNSG and later wowing the retailers and others gathered in the crowd during the New Day showcase mentioned above. Brown-Clark is pictured above during her performance and below with the entire ensemble of New Day artists who performed together for a special finale.
