Carolyn Traylor made her television debut in January, 2007 when she opened the season for Jeff Majors on The Gospel of Music (TV-One), a show which became the second highest rated for the network.

Now as her single, "There's A Story Behind My Praise," from the album of the same name, hits the charts, here is what key radio programmers have to say about it:

"There's A Story Behind My Praise" is one of the most requested songs on WLOK. I believe it's because it's the testimony of the majority of our listeners. Every solo artist and choir member sings it or let's say attempts to sing it every Sunday in a church here in the Memphis metro area." Kim Harper, Program Director, WLOK – Memphis, TN

"Carolyn Traylor is an artist who has what we call in the south "Down-Home Class". Her voice really stirs the soul and blesses the spirit." Kenny J, Program Director, WHLW – Montgomery, AL

"The title says it all. It is an awesome testimony. WNOO phones have been lighting up from day one of putting it into rotation. It is definitely about to move to Power rotation." Sam Terry, Program Director, WNOO – Chattanooga, TN

"I feel "There's A Story Behind My Praise" is one powerful piece of music ministry, it's a song that every Christian can relate to.." Jenell Roberts, Program Director, 95.5 Hallelujah FM - Jackson, MS

"Carolyn Traylor has the power of Shirley Caesar and Dottie Peoples with unbelievable range. No matter what she sings, it's anointed. One Night while ministering in Buffalo, people walking by the church was led to come inside to see who was singing. That's Powerful!" Lee Pettigrew, Program Director, WUFO – Buffalo, NY

In 1998 a little song called "Why We Sing" by Kirk Franklin & The Family dumbfounded the music industry and transcended the sound and confines of Urban and Urban Adult Contemporary radio programming becoming a phenomenon and one of the biggest songs of all time. The answer to "Why We Sing" is "There's A Story Behind My Praise!"
